

Cameron Longfellow

clongfellow@hawk.iit.edu
(217) 352-3451

Education

Graduated May 2018

Illinois Mathematics and Science Academy, Aurora IL

Graduated from a rigorous and selective program at IMSA, while staying involved in extra-curriculars, including a leadership position in the school's residential program, guiding students to personal and academic success while fostering strong interpersonal connections through creative, engaging events.

Expected May 2022

Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago IL

Pursuing Bachelor's degree in Computer Science.

Professional Experience

October 2019 – March 2020

Operations Manager, Altitude Chicago

- Facilitated communication with customers, allowing for events and operations to greater cater to customer desires.
- Organized training for new hires, ensuring that all employees are able to succeed to the standards of the company.
- Analyzed sales data, allowing the company to make needed improvements and maximize profits.
- Presented results and new ideas at weekly management meetings.

Other Experiences and Qualifications

April 2018

CSAW Cyber Forensics Challenge Midwest Finalist

- Employed a variety of cybersecurity techniques to gain access to hidden systems.
- Worked with a small team to maximize information gain with a restricted time frame.

September 2020

JPMorgan Chase Virtual Experience Program

- Interfaced with stock price data feed for data analysis.
- Visualized data with Perspective open source code.
- Displayed financial data visually for traders.

Skills

Languages: Python, C, C++, C#, R, Java, Swift, SQL, OCaml,

Technologies: Microsoft Office Suite, Google Suite, Adobe Creative Suite

OS: Windows, Linux

Professional: Communication, project management, problem-solving